NOW ON SALE, 1654 IMPERIAL QUARTO. TANGLISH AND CHINESE DICTIONARY. WITH THE PUSTI AND MANDARIN ESIRABLE HOUSES at MAGAZINE

PRONTINCIATION. An Anglo-Chinese Dictionary, published at the Daily Press Office, Hongkong. For comprehensiveness and practical service this Work dands unrivalled. All the new 1954 words which the Chinese have of latey ears been compelled to coin to express the numerous objects in machinery, photography, telegraphy, and in science generally, which the rapid advance of foreign relations has imposed upon them, are here given in extenso. Each and every word is fully illustrated and explained, forming expresses for students of a most instructive nature. Both the Court and Panti pronunciations are given the accents being carefully marked on the best principle hitherto attained. The typography displays the success of an attempt to make the Chinese and English type correspond in the size of body, thereby effecting a vast economy of space, achieving a clearness not previously One GODOWN No. 117, PRATA EAST, at attained, and dispensing with those vast margins and vacant spaces which have heretofore characterized Chinese publications. To illustrate the vast scope of the work the following facts are submitted for consideration :-Chalmers Vocabulary contains about 16,000 Chinese characters, and Medhurst's English and Chinese Dictionary about 100,000, whilst this work contains more than 50,000 English words, and upwards of 600,000 Chinese characters. Again, despite all the grammars and though printed in smaller type than formerly 10.-Aberdeen Paper Mills other elementary works as yet published, the and condensed in every possible manner, constudent of this difficult language absolutely requires examples to display the various applientions and equivalents of different words which have one general meaning. Of these examples and although enlarged and improved in every this work contains more than five times as way the price remains the same, not withstanding many as any other Dictionary hitherto pub- the fall in exchange. For practical purposes the arrangement of the work is so complete, that a reference to its pp. 780. 33. pages enables a person who understands English to communicate effectively with natives who understand nothing but Chinese. In this respect the work will be found indispensable to all Europeans residing in China, and to the natives the 1gh themselves it explains subjects fully with which very few indeed of them are perfectly acquainted. To parties resident in England and interested LONDON in China it cannot but be invaluable occasion-It comprises upwards of two thousand large 4 Vols. IMPERIAL QUARTO, Price, $20. A Large REDUCTION in PRICE is made
